High Fidelity Family Teams (HiFi)

WHAT IS HIGH FIDELITY FAMILY TEAMS (HiFi)?
Children and adolescents experiencing serious emotional disturbance often have very complicated plans from several different systems. High Fidelity Family Teams (HiFi) eagerly provides assistance that will help the family and child coordinate their services and supports in a way that empowers them to meet their needs as they define them. HiFi is a structured, team-based process that uses an evidence-based, nationally-recognized model that partners with families to use their unique voice and strengths to develop a family-driven plan that promotes self advocacy.

WHAT WE DO
The goals of the HiFi process include:
- Creating a plan to help meet the behavioral health needs prioritized by the youth and family
- Improving the youth and family’s ability to manage their own services and supports
- Developing and strengthening the youth and family’s natural social support system over time
- Integrating the work of all child-serving systems and natural supports into one organized and effective plan

This process is intended to keep families together in their own homes by teaching them a way to plan for their own needs.

A UNIQUE TEAM
HiFi is responsible for identification, assessment and development of support plans for individuals with high needs and includes:
- FACILITATOR — guides the HiFi process and teaches the family how to self-advocate and build upon natural supports.
- FAMILY SUPPORT PARTNER (FSP) — a parent who has gone through similar struggles with their own family and, as a result, has knowledge of the various systems and is able to provide support to other parents.
- YOUTH SUPPORT PARTNER (YSF) — a young adult who has overcome his/her own life challenges as a youth and now acts as a mentor and advocate for the child to help them find their voice.
